CHINESE GOVT WARNED OF FINANCIAL DEFAULT

Peking, Nov. 6.—(By the A. P.).—Chinese officials today informed the correspondent that the American legation here on November 1 received a cable dispatch, signed by Secretary of State Hughes, instructing the legation to inform the Chinese government that China's failure to meet the principal and interest on the loan due the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank company of Chicago, which was due October 31, had strained China's financial and political credit in the United States and seriously injured China's chances at the Far Eastern conference.

The dispatch also is said to have asserted that the American government in view of the Chinese government's failure to accept any of the various proposals made by American bankers for a rescheduling of the loan, might find it difficult to continue to recognize the Peking government as the competent Chinese government.

Craig in Conference With Lloyd George

British Press Forecasts Retirement of Lloyd George Should Uster Prove Unreasonable.

London, Nov. 6.—Storm clouds, in the form of a threatened hiatus in the Irish peace negotiations, are looming on the British political horizon, and whether they break depends upon the attitude Uster adopts toward the parleys now going on between representatives of the Sinn Fein and the government. This is the almost unanimous opinion of the Sunday newspapers, the editorial writers of which devote columns today in attempting to forecast the result.

Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, held two lengthy conferences with Prime Minister Lloyd George yesterday at the request, but the premiers are not expected to reach any agreement. The conferences are supposed to have dealt with the proposal to enlarge the constitution of the council of Ireland, delimitation of the frontier between the North and South, protection of minorities and other possible bases for settlement which have been tentatively agreed upon by the British and Sinn Fein representatives.

"Not since the end of 1916," says the Sunday Times, "has the political situation been so interesting, so critical, so full of hope, and at the same time so uncertain and liable to fly off on unexpected tangents."

"We may be on the point of settling the Irish problem. On the other hand, disappointment, if it is still possible, will not leave Ireland in a worse state than before, but would have far-reaching effects on our own domestic politics."

Port Moresby, British New Guinea, will be returned under the direction of Secretary Weeks to the city of Baltimore as soon as the public health service vacates the reservation.

Permission to intervene in the Packer divorce case was granted the National Association of Broadcasters at a meeting held at the headquarters of the National Association of Broadcasters at the Packer residence in the city of Baltimore.

The Irish situation has undergone no change today. The prime minister had a brief consultation with Austen Chamberlain, who is expected to leave for Paris tomorrow morning to attend the conference on disarmament.

The London correspondent of the Belfast Telegraph, who is regarded as well informed on the Ulster side of the negotiations, in a dispatch to his paper, says that although nothing has occurred materially altering the situation it would not be surprising if the Ulster premier and his colleagues should be called into the conference immediately for the purpose of reviewing the position of northern Ireland.
